Community Capital Bancshares, Inc. to pay dividends

Albany, Georgia

(OTCQX: ALBY)

May 23, 2023

ALBANY — At Tuesday’s annual shareholder meeting at the bank’s Meredyth Drive Main Office, the Board of Directors of AB&T’s parent company, Community Capital Bancshares, Inc., announced payment of a 75-cent dividend for each share of common stock held, following the bank’s strong 2022 performance.

“A 150% increase in the dividend paid to shareholders reinforces the strength, stability, and resiliency of the bank,” said AB&T CEO Perry Revell. “We’re building relationships that are enduring. These intentional relationships, built on mutual trust and an abiding commitment, fuel our success and passion for serving as the Gold Standard of banking in this community.

“Our team stands resolute, poised, and ready to honor our pledge to our clients, not just today but well into the future. We’re humbled to share this success with our shareholders.”

The dividend will be paid on July 10, 2023, to all shareholders of record as of May 31, 2023.

Community Capital Bancshares Inc. is a bank holding company located in Albany, GA whose principal activity is ownership and management of its wholly bank subsidiary AB&T, which offers a full range of commercial and retail banking services.
